

Partner with RedR Australia

Engage your organisation in RedR's international humanitarian response work.

RedR Australia is a leading international humanitarian response agency that selects, trains, and deploys technical specialists.

As the only Standby Partner to the United Nations in the southern hemisphere, 11 United Nations agencies and local government ministries call on our roster of more than 700 humanitarian professionals, to respond during times of disaster and conflict, and contribute to resilience building and recovery efforts.

RedR Australia is also an internationally recognised provider of humanitarian training.

Our skilled people deploy to United Nations agencies and government ministries across the globe to help communities prepare, respond, and recover from crises and conflict.

RedR Australia's work relies on a range of skills and industries:

Coordination

-  Assessment/
Monitoring Evaluation
-  Communications/
Media Liaison
-  Emergency Preparedness
-  Field Safety
-  Humanitarian Affairs
-  Information Management

Sector services

-  Education
-  Emergency
Response
-  Logistics
-  Nutrition
-  Protection
-  Public Health

Technical services

-  Civil/Construction Engineering
-  Electricity Supply
-  GIS/Mapping
-  Information Communication
Technology
-  Site Planning
-  Shelter Construction
-  WASH Engineering

Arup staff work with RedR's humanitarian trainers during a site planning exercise at RedR's Corporate Humanitarian Challenge. Arup is one of RedR Australia's long-standing corporate partners. Photo credit: Ian Parish, RedR Australia

Benefits can include:

- Multi-year partner agreement
- Introduction and engagement with the humanitarian sector
- Access to 11 United Nations agencies, the Australian Government's Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, international local government ministries, global RedR Federation networks, and regional RedR Australia offices in Fiji and Jordan
- Register for RedR Australia's internationally recognised humanitarian training courses, Essentials of Humanitarian Practice (EHP) and Hostile Environment Awareness Training (HEAT) (concession rates apply)
- Apply to join RedR Australia's humanitarian standby roster
- Support your employees to use their skills in international humanitarian response
- Sharing of employee knowledge, technical skills, and professional expertise with the humanitarian sector
- Employee engagement through fundraising initiatives such as RedR Day and other fundraising appeals
- Enter a team into RedR Australia's annual Corporate Humanitarian Challenge
- Volunteering opportunities on RedR Australia's training courses
- Access to leading industry speakers for conferences, workshops, and team meetings
- Opportunities to feature in RedR Australia's communications channels, including e-newsletters, social media channels, and website

redr australia

Opportunities for Partnership

Corporate partner

Engage your organisation in the humanitarian sector.

Training partner

Support RedR Australia's humanitarian training.

Community partner

Make RedR Australia your organisation's charity of choice.

For more information, please contact RedR Australia's Relationships Manager, Robyn Hollands at rhollands@redr.org.au or +61 8341 2615.